August 11, 2013 Olympia, WA – Ginger Gruber of Port Orchard, WA defended her women's title, breaking her own event record set in 2012. Gruber tallied 68.575 miles in 11 Hours and 45 minutes, showing her trademark patience that moved her into top position after trailing her competition in the first half.

Steve Walters took the lead from the start and was closely chased by 2nd and 3rd place runners. Walters found his second wind in the last 3 hours to secure his win and bettered his best result at the event by over 10 miles.
